$5,000,000.
ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY
$3,000,000.
Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great indisputable to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY. Officers of first-class Steam of Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

WILL SECURE A SUFFICIENT SUM TO REBUILD SHOULD THE PROPERTY BE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000 00
Annual Income,	6 000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities,	2,000,000

THE ÆTNA
Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.
ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.
Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than on other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared a per centage of said sum, and paid as cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecendented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

AGRICULTURE.

The Romans were much devoted to agriculture. Many of their greatest commanders were called from the plough among them Cincinnatus. At one time Roman Senators usually resided in the country and cultivated the ground with their own hands.

The Romans, according to Cato, Varro, Virgil, Pliny, Columella, Palladius, and others, were attentive to every branch of husbandry. In good meadows and the art of improving the soil by application of manures, they were greatly ahead of the people of Orange, and it may be of Edgecombe and Johnston too.

In Johnston, two weeks ago, we saw more manure or compost hauled out in one small plantation than we saw from Hillsboro' to Yanceyville, a distance of nearly one miles. This speaks well for Johnston and badly for Caswell and Orange. We saw more evidences of work in Johnston county than we had seen in any one of twenty counties through which we had lately travelled.

The Caswell planter makes but little compost, but relies upon guano.

The Orange farmer makes but little compost and uses but little guano. He manufactures up with Johnston and the old Hills.

In Halifax, a few of the best farmers plough peas under to improve the soil just as the old Romans used to plough beans under. If any Orange farmer will, in June, sow a bushel and a half or two bushels of peas to the acre, and turn under the vines in September or October, after the hogs have eaten off the peas, and sow down wheat, if the crop is not doubled we will agree to make the amount good to him in wheat.

The history of agriculture, 50 years ago in North Carolina, is the history of agriculture here to-day. There has been very little improvement. The policy has been to clear and wear out, and then clear and wear out again. Everything was taken from the land and nothing returned to it.

We saw a man seeding wheat last year and we are sure he was not turning the ground more than an inch and a half. He made no wheat, and, no doubt attributed his failure to the season, when it should have been credited to the man and his shallow ploughing.

Our agricultural implements have been of a very inferior character. Nothing adds so much to the pleasure or tends so much to lighten the labors of a farmer as a good plough and a fat horse.

We should like for Mr. John Moore, at Pittsboro', to send us an account of his first year's experience in farming with freedmen, and we may comfort him by giving our's.

MASSACHUSETTS.—It seems certain that there is good prospect that in the course of time the Massachusetts breed of politicians will die out. By such a result the world will be vastly benefitted and the peace of society the better preserved. Dr. Allen has been looking into certain statistics, and from time to time he has given the country the benefit of his investigation. It would appear that the increase of population in that State is due to a very large extent to the foreign element. The cause of the disproportion of foreign and native birth is well understood by medical men, and proves conclusively that crimes and sins of an exceedingly heinous and peculiar character are common among the most boastful, arrogant and corrupt people on the continent. We copy a few of Dr. Allen's figures:

"Of 858 births in Lowell in 1868 302 had fathers born abroad, and only 216 had fathers born in this country. But even this does not give the whole statement, for, of the 296 whose fathers were born here, a certain number had foreign mothers or grandparents, so that the estimate of the strictly American births at 2-7 only omits the foreign or partially foreign at 63%. Almost, less than half the population of Lowell are foreigners, or of recent foreign extraction. The number of births in Lowell was 854 in 1867, of which 215 were of pure American parentage. In Lawrence, in 1867, there were 859 births; in 1868 only 240. Of the latter, Dr Allen estimates that 647 were of foreign descent, and 193 of pure American blood. About half the populations of Lawrence are of foreign extraction."

U. S. MARSHAL.—Mr. Samuel J. Cowan has been nominated by the President for Marshal of this State. Whether the Senate will confirm this appointment remains to be seen. The present Marshal, Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., is an exceedingly high toned, intellectual gentleman, and is not one of the "latter day" Radical saints. He became a Republican at a time when it required a most conscientious devotion to principle and the completest abnegation of self—when an anti slavery Southern man was forever banned, and when Gov. Holden, then editor of the Standard, poured out upon all such the vials of his wrath which excoriated like lava from Ætna. But Mr. Goodloe, after serving his party for a lifetime is not sound enough, but some new fledged Radical must supplant him. Mr. Goodloe, if he should be relieved, will bear with him in his retirement the respect of all of the good citizens of his native State.

A VERY extensive revival of religion is going on in the Baptist Churches of Petersburg. At the first Church over eighty have made a profession of faith. In the second there has been some ten or twelve conversions.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND GLEANINGS.

For some days the Sentinel has contained an unusual amount of matter purely of a State character. It will not be deemed by considerate and thoughtful readers as impertinent or unwarranted supposition that they will relish a change—a gathering here and there from the literary "herbaceous retreats" of a few viands with which to regale their palates. If in this surmise, we are mistaken, we promise to discontinue for all time the "Editorial Notes and Gleanings," which, we take leave to say, are not prepared with that patient care judicious readers are authorized to demand, but are gathered in a necessarily hurried and often very unsatisfactory way. We are really glad to know that some appreciate our labors in this department, and as long as they reward us with an approving smile, we promise to continue our efforts in this direction. Verb sap. But let us descend from these, possibly, unnecessary prolings to matters of higher import.

Reader, do you really love the beautiful and noble, and sublime? We doubt much if you do. Possibly, if we were to ask, "Do you relish Shelley, or Tennyson, or Robert Browning, or S. T. C., or Wordsworth"—points very alike—you would answer yes! Perhaps, so may, but very few do really relish them. It is true many—very many read these great masters, but how few have the inner inkling of those hidden beauties which are seen and enjoyed by the "chosen few."

PRAY answer us: Why should men any more possess the faculty of enjoying the best poems, the most perfect embodiment of the highest human thought, than the most exquisite statuary—creations of a wondrous art? Indeed, it is only now and then, that you can find a man who really relishes the sublimest and noblest expressions of the human intellect. It is quite as feasible to profess an admiration for the foremost authors who have bodied forth their noblest thoughts in the most exquisite diction, but after all, how many have any genuine poetic taste and sympathy? For ourself, it has possessed that faculty divine—the art of the poet, we would never expect any sympathy from the million, and no echoes of applause from the inexpansive creatures who essay to pronounce judgment upon the immortal works of immortal singers. It would be wise to expect anything else than such a consummation as that. Edmund Burke, the most philosophical and cultured of all statesmen has said, and we accept it as truth, "The cause of a wrong taste is a defect of judgment." This is doubtless so; but many men have ordinarily good judgment, who are utterly barren of all true taste. They would be ready to pronounce the crude production of some village rhymster as good as Milton's "Il Penseroso," or "L'Allegro," if the good taste of two centuries did not unqualifiedly denounce such a procedure.

But after all, what is taste? Have you a relish or taste for a luscious peach or grape? Please tell us in words what that taste is? So it is with taste in letters, whether we consider a taste for the metrical arrangement of words, or less ambitious prose. You cannot properly define taste. You place words together in happy collocation, and then fancy you have written a true definition of taste, but, in fact, it is only words "signifying nothing"—it is, to the mind, what a definition of music is to the deaf, or a magnificient description of natural scenery is to the blind.—Only those will understand you who have near l enravishing strains, or enjoyed the melody of flowing numbers.

Well, after all this editorial confabulation, you will not expect any "gleanings." So we will postpone the presentation of a few good things we had chanced to meet with, until another day. In the meantime, if any of our readers know a better definition than the following of "taste," we will be pleased to have it sent to us. An English writer not generally known—Greville, has asked this question. "May not taste be compared to that exquisite sense of the bee, which instantly discovers and extracts the quintessence of every flower, and disregards all the rest of it?"

WIT.

The New York World, the best edited paper on the Continent, is wonderfully rich in good things. Its last number contains an amusing article on the "Literary Equation," a part of which we may hereafter publish. It amusingly contrasts, too, with the close of the article, the trials of poets and country readers, who are beset by agents proposing to sell works of a very unartistic or vicious sort. It thinks the city folk have much the advantage, for they can reckon the convenient Metropolitan" and make such pests "ekedaddle." I then usually ask, "Whether there is any legal redress to the persecutions of these persons, we do not undertake to say; but we warn them that the Constitution of our country prohibits 'cruel and unusual punishments' even for crimes so heinous as living in the State of Massachusetts, or voting the Radical ticket."

SPECIAL.—We refer our readers to an article from the Richmond Enquirer, headed "Bad for the Carpet Baggers' Organ." It is decidedly rich. Nay, it hits the Standard man a regular "jo-darter." Quoth the New York Tribune; "Newspapers that need Government support, are not of much use either to the Government or any body else." H. G. never before uttered so indisputable a truth. The people of North Carolina for once are in full accord with the Tribune philosopher.

It is supposed that a complete set of George Cruikshank's works is not to be found—not even in the British Museum.—In his own possession there is not one half of what he has done. It must be remembered that he has been drawing and engraving for over sixty years.

In view of Mr. Motley's appointment to the mission near the Court of St. James, the question of court costume for our minister may be considered as settled, since we have it on the authority of Shakespeare that "Motley's (is) the only wear."

For the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C., April 13, 1869.

Editor of Sentinel:—We have a reconstructed neighborhood around Buchanan, up in the North-western portion of this County. Some two weeks since, a Mr. Loyd, (white man) in that neighborhood, lost his boar pig, and by some means ascertained that it he would visit Mr. Jake Royster, (colored,) he could get to see his pig; he did so and found his pig chained in Jake's yard. He took charge of pig and chain, and sent his son off for one of our beloved Governor's Squires to come and try the title to the pig. While his son was gone for the Squire, Jake overpowered Mr. Loyd and got possession of the pig and ran off in the woods, and concealed him.

Mr. Loyd, as a good and loyal citizen, put the case in the Squire's hands; in a day or two, Jake proposed to Loyd that if he would stop proceedings, he would pay the cost, and deliver the pig to Loyd; but Loyd informed him that the matter had passed out of his control, and he could do nothing. On last Wednesday night, Mr Loyd was awaked by some one throwing stones against his house; his son got to the door first, and as he opened it, was fired upon by some person standing in the yard, a shot eight or ten steps from the door, and was severely, (if not mortally) wounded. The assassin—both Mr. Loyd and his son recognized Jake Royster. On Friday, the Leagues of Granville had a grand turnout, to celebrate the day of Gen. Lee's surrender; Jake was in the grand procession. Some persons from the neighborhood of Buchanan arrived in town and delivered to the Sheriff a warrant for Jake's arrest. Now, here was a troublous affair. It would not do for white men to approach that colored assemblage and arrest one of its members—so our worthy Deputy Town Constable, Mr. Granderson Russell, (he being high in the League, and a gentleman of color) was authorized and empowered by the Sheriff to make the arrest. Granderson very gallantly performed the duty assigned him, and walked up to the procession, seized Jake, and marched him up to the Court House, and from thence to jail, to await a preliminary trial on next Tuesday and by the foresight of our Town Commissioners in having appointed the right man as Deputy Town Constable, saved us a terrible tragedy. It is believed that young Loyd cannot survive, a heavy charge of shot and slugs having penetrated his breast and arm.

Yours truly,

M. F.

HAYWOOD, CHATHAM Co., April 8, 1869.

Editor of the Sentinel—

DEAR SIR:—It seems that this immediate vicinity has been very unfortunate in securing the location of any of the State buildings. This place only lacked 2 votes of having the University located here. The present Capital came within 1 vote of being located in Haywood, and the Penitentiary was actually located at Looxville (3 miles distant) in the fall of 1868, and the stockade commenced, but from some cause (for which the citizens of Chatham are not responsible) that has been taken away. This matter has, I think, formed several 'Rings' outside of this county. This immediate section, however, can rival any other in the State in mineral wealth, if she cannot in selfishness; that is, the heretofore known mineral wealth of the Deep River Valley, together with the recent discoveries of Gold, Silver, Lead, Iron, Copper, &c. The purchase of the Haywood Copper Mine (said to be the richest in the State) by large capitalist, who are making extensive preparations to work the same, has caused new explorations to be made, which promises great wealth to many land owners hereabouts. A very rich bed of Iron ore has been developed on the land of Mr. R. A. Smith, adjoining the town of Haywood silver and Lead has been discovered near by, and just north of the Sand Stone formation, 3 miles from this place, gold has been found of the finest quality, besides many deposits of Copper, Salt Springs, Slate, &c. The mineral wealth of the surrounding country is well worth the attention of capitalist, and those acquainted with mining.

Very Respectfully,

J. W. S.

THE BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.

MR. EDITOR:—The public and specially the stockholders of this Bank will be glad to learn that parties, creditors of the bank, along with stockholders, will in a few days take steps to take this bank out of bankruptcy; it being ascertained that the bank was illegally placed in Bankruptcy; the bankrupt law requiring corporations by consent of a majority of stockholders to file petitions in Bankruptcy. It is well known, that the directors of this bank refused to consult stockholders, and by their wm placed this institution into the bankrupt court; by this action of the directors the stockholders use their stock and the debtors are now forced to pay their debts to the bank in currency, instead of bank notes, which could have been done but for this unfortunate step of the Directors.

This action on the part of the creditors and stockholders may disappoint some parties who anticipate large fees, yet it will be of great benefit to the Stockholders and debtors.

WENTWORTH, NORTH CAROLINA.

MR EDITOR: I see from a late number of the Sentinel, that the Rev. H. W. Beecher of New York, is to have a monument, and, as it is a matter of much interest to the country, how such an illustrious disciple of the meek and lowly Savior should be handed down to all coming ages, I beg leave to offer a suggestion, and the reason therefor.

About the time of Lee's surrender, some ladies in Georgia sent a lot of willow baskets (the work of their own hands) to some friends in New York, to raise funds to relieve their pressing wants. The receivers, being members of the Rev. gentleman's congregation, made known the fact to their beloved pastor, who called his people together, and advised that the baskets should be sold at auction, which being determined on, the Rev. Gentleman, in his enthusiasm, seized a basket, mounted the rostrum, called out for bidders, and soon knocked down the first to himself, at the enormous sum of fifteen dollars ($15); the example was contagious, and the whole were disposed of for something like a hundred dollars.

By some lucky accident the thing became known to outsider, and the whole affair appeared in the city papers, with the Rev. gentleman's remarks upon the situation, and the Godlike quality of charity with which he interspersed his calls for another bid. Such acts of quiet, unobtrusive and munificent charity ought to be commemorated, and I respectfully suggest that he be represented in full canonicals, with the basket in one hand and the auctioneer's hammer in the other, and trust some rising artist will immortalize himself by giving to his features that "who'll give any more" expression so peculiar to the trade.

AN OCCASIONAL READER.

P. S. Will you please enquire of the Superintendent of Public Instruction whether buzzards are guided by sight or smell in finding their food. The question has often been discussed, and a happy solution by him, at this time, might be of great advantage in rebuilding the fortunes of the University.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—During a recent visit to Washington, N. C., I had the pleasure of an introduction to the Messrs Burbanks & Gallagher, Bankers, &c., who have been engaged in the manufacture of scuppernong wine for the last ten years, but of late years have enlarged their business to such an extent that they have now some 8 000 or 9,000 gallons on hand, a portion of which is now ready for market. I have seen their establishment and can with truth say that their aim is to furnish a wholesome article for general use, in order to supercede this vile whiskey, which destroys so many lives in the course of the year.

Having come from a wine drinking country and being somewhat acquainted with the qualities of European wines, I must say that the wine they call dry wine has all the aroma, body and bloom of a first class Rhenish production. The best recommendation is that it is free of any admixture either alcoholic or sacharine, and stands on its own strength, which has been doubted by many heretofore.

This enterprise should be encouraged by all who take a deep interest in the advancement of public morals, and as you have often called attention to the culture of the grape, it may be these few lines may not be unacceptable to your readers.

I remain, very respectfully,

Your humble servant,

C. F. S.

BAD FOR THE CARPET-BAGGERS' ORGAN.—In the Senate on Tuesday, Mr. Abbott, the carpet-bag "Senator" from North Carolina, sought to tack on an amendment to pension certain papers in North Carolina, by giving them the United States laws, and other official advertisements. Mr. Anthony, however, deprecated the policy of Government subsidies to newspapers, and said that a newspaper which could not sustain itself from its legitimate business, was of no use to the Government or any one else, and the amendment was rejected.—Upon this the Tribune compliments Senator Anthony, and declares that "newspapers that need Government support, are not of much use either to the Government or anybody else." This is very hard on such carpet-bag journals as live upon the "advertisements" of the "bankruptcy business."—Rich. Enquirer.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AT NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE April 10.

Ex-President Johnson made his promised speech to-day. There were about three thousand men in the crowd, while the portico of the hotel was nearly filled with ladies.

In the course of his speech he spoke three-quarters of an hour to the colored persons (many of that class being present) about "Moses." He reminded them that it was he who had declared them free in Tennessee when that State was excepted from Lincoln's proclamation, and left them free when he went to Washington; but now, on his return, he found them slaves again—slaves to loyal leagues. He intended to free them again. He produced a blue book, containing the ritual of the loyal league, and, reading from it warned them against this new kind of thraldom. His comments on the ritual were excessively severe, and reminded one of his war on the Know-Nothings in 1853.

He referred to the disfranchisement and attendant degradation of 100 000 white Tennesseeans; denounced the conspiracy of league-mongers, and declared that the form of government in Tennessee was unrepublican and in violation of the constitution and the fundamental principles of the free American republic. The speech occupied nearly three hours, and was well received.

RETURN TO REASON AFTER FORTY YEARS OF INSANITY.—About forty years ago a young lady, eighteen years of age, full of life and beauty, a resident of this county, from some unknown, or at least ungovernable cause, became suddenly insane. For some time she remained beneath the roof of her parents, and received the united efforts and sympathy of her relatives and friends, but all to no avail. The mental faculties were too surely broken. A short time after, she became an inmate of our county poor house, at Dewitville, where she remained until a few days since, a curiosity to strangers and wholly lost to herself. Well we remember, three years since, while paying a visit to the county buildings at that place, noting the very strange appearance of "Crazy Ann." There was something peculiar about her derangement, so much so that we have often called to mind incidents of her conversation and manners. But a few days since "Crazy Ann" resumed her proper cognomen, and is again sane. What a sleep! Forty years of blank existence, and now a stranger to herself. She resumes life where she left it when young and beautiful and the companion of the gay and mirthful. Now she is old, feeble, and gray in the enjoyment only of the fact that she is again rational, and busily engaged in making her own acquaintance.—Jamestown (N. Y.) Press.

A Washington dispatch says: "One of the most spirited contests while it lasted was that which took place between Gen. Sherman and Secretary Rawlins. The general, who is nothing if not autocratic in his ideas and acts, wished to absorb the entire war office in his person. To this Rawlins emphatically objected. He said he did not take the portfolio of war for the mere purpose of being an ornamental figure head to Gen. Sherman's little arrangement. The results are that the order directing the chiefs of bureaus to report to Gen. Sherman are rescinded; a very bitter feeling between the new Secretary and the General, and, lastly, a coolness between the President and General Sherman. It is stated that this little fiasco has had more effect in disgusting the President with his newly-acquired honors than anything that has yet occured to him."

BANQUET TO CHARLES DICKENS.—Liverpool, April 10, Midnight.—A banquet to Charles Dickens was given this evening at St. George's Hall, in this city. About 700 gentlemen sat down to the table, and there were also many spectators. Henry Hough ton and Hepworth Dixon presided. Lord Dufferin made a pleasant speech. He regretted that Mr Dickens had not entered the field of politics. He would have been a power in the House of Commons and a fellow poer of Macaulay. Lord Lytton, in glowing terms proposed the health of Chas. Dickens, when Mr. Dickens, with much emotion, responded. He said, in referring to the remarks of Lord Dufferin, that after mature deliberation he had decided to stand and fall by literature, and not to enter politics. Thus far he has not regretted his decision.

Anthony Trollope also responded to a sentiment. He eulogized Washington Irving, Mr. Motley, and the American people. The latter were always willing to recognize publicly the honor due to literary men.—He closed by hinting that the appointment of Charles Dickens as Minister to Washington might be beneficial to both countries.

TALLEYRAND'S PROPHECIES—THE MILITANT GROWTH OF AMERICA PREDICTED BY THE FRENCH DIPLOMATIST.

A Paris letter in the Gazette de Lausanne says:

You are aware that Prince de Talleyrand left some memoirs, which were not to be published till thirty years after his death, and which are now in the hands of an eminent barrister, M. Andral. I have been able to cast a glance at them, and I am much surprised at their contents. I was especially struck by a page relative to the Congress of Vienna. It is a real prophecy, and I cannot resist the temptation of giving you the substance of it. At that period M. de Talleyrand said that the balance of power in Europe founded at that assembly was menaced by great dangers, one from the sea, and the other which might arise in the heart of Germany:

"On the side of America," said the Prince, "Europe must always have her eyes open, and not furnish any pretext for recrimination or reprisals. America is increasing every day. She will become a colossal power, and a moment must arrive when placed in more easy communication with Europe by means of new discoveries, she will wish to say her word in our affairs, and have a hand in them. Political prudence, therefore, imposes on governments of the old Continent the care of scrupulously watching that no pretext shall be offered for such an intervention. The day when America shall plant her foot in Europe, peace and security will be banished for a long time."

The Prince afterwards speaks of Germany. Here the prediction has no longer the form of a conjecture, but is in some sort an anticipated recital:

"No illusion must be formed; the equilibrium we have founded in the Congress of Vienna is not eternal. It will succumb some day or other, but it promises us some years of peace. What condemns it for a term, more or less distant, is the aspirations which are becoming universal in the centre of Germany. The necessities of defence and of a common peril have prepared men's minds for German unity; this idea will continue to be developed, and some day one of the great Powers which form part of the Conference will desire to realize this union for its own profit. Austria is not to be feared, since she is composed of pieces and morsels, and, having no unity at home, she cannot think of exploring it. Prussia it is that must be watched; she will attempt the adventure, and, if she succeeds, then all the conditions of equilibrium will be changed, and a new basis and a new organization will have to be sought for in Europe."

The Prince continues to examine the circumstances more or less difficult under which this reconstruction will be effected; and he points out France as the nation most interested in combating the movement for unification, or in seeking a compensation.

JEFFERSON DAVIS—A RADICAL BOHEMIAN MEETS HIM IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

I had an admit to the "Speakers' gallery," which holds about fifty, who get their names put down three days previous.—While I am standing in the group, eagerly watching the Police Sergeant, who will presently call the name of the privileged few, I hear:

"Isn't this Mr. Davis?"

I turned round and right behind me stands Jefferson Davis. But zounds! what a change in mortal man! I would scarcely have known him if my attention had not been called to him. And can it be possible, I mused, that this shriveled faced, thin voiced, shrunken limbed, slouchy little old man is the eloquent and commanding Senator from Mississippi, the prompt, resolute and covertly Secretary of War that was really President when Franklin Pierce was ostensibly? I tell you the truth. A feeling of pity stole over me. I was touched, and there is no knowing what my impulse of tender magnanimity to our fallen foe would have driven me to do and say if it had not met in the impulse of the man who put the question I have quoted that obsequious sycophancy towards the slaveholders, rebellion which for these ten years past has been the pre eminent characteristic of anti-slavery England. Mr. Davis quietly replied, "That is my name, sir."

"What, Jefferson Davis?"

"Yes, sir. May I ask your name, sir?"

"Harris; but I am nobody; I am simply an Englishman who deeply sympathizes with you, I have often wanted to see you; I have your picture hanging up in my house and prize it very highly."

This was said in an agitated, fervent way, while hands were shaken, and then Mr. Harris, who was a grey haired, well to do-looking gentleman, put his mouth close to Mr. Davis' ear, and whispered what I did not hear but what I could not but imagine was "England was with you; and, if you could have held out another year, we would have joined France in recognizing your government." Mr. Davis smiled feebly, and, I thought, sadly. His name was called and in he went. I followed immediately, and saw him met by one of the House attaches, the gentleman in black sword breeches and shad-belly coat, with a silk sunflower on its back, who absolutely bent double (I am not exaggerating) at the approach of Mr. D., went dancing and flushed and smiling before him, whispering to everybody, "this is Mr. Jefferson Davis," and gallanted him to a sort of pew there for specially favored strangers on the floor of the House, deep in a recess, and where Mr. Davis sat down with Archbishop Manning and Dean Stanly. What the Archbishop said and what the ex President said, I know not, for I must hurry to my seat, far over their heads, or lose it.

Father Burke, who preached in Rome this Lent to the most crowded audiences, and to the great admiration of all who have heard him, is wonderfully eloquent, an Irishman, and a most enthusiastic one. He has made many conversions to the Church, as did Archbishop Manning before him, who returned to England at the beginning of Lent, thus calling down upon both of them the ire of the Protestant clergymen in Rome, especially that of Mr. Lyman, the American clergyman.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills speedily cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of the Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its unilorm character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the darkening shades of the throat and lungs. As a protection against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY.—Wednesday Evening.—The Presbytery met at 8 o'clock, P. M., and was opened with a sermon by Rev. F. H. Johnston, of Lexington, from Isaiah 40; 13. After the service the Presbytery was constituted with prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson, the last Moderator present. The Rev. J. C. Vass, of Newborn, was then elected Moderator, and Rev. F. H. Johnston, and J. A. Womack, Ruling Elder, were elected Clerks. Present 12 ministers and 7 Ruling Elders. Rev. W. S. Lacey was dismissed to connect himself with the Presbytery of Lexington, Va. The Presbytery then adjourned to meet at 9½ o'clock, on Thursday, (this morning.) Divine Service will be held in the Presbyterian Church this evening, at 8 o'clock, to be conducted by the Rev. W. B. THE CONFEDERATE DEAD AT GETTYSBURG.—General Fitz Lee has lately received a letter from the superintendent of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, stating that of the three thousand seven hundred Confederate dead interred at that place, about seven hundred can be identified, but the remainder cannot. He states that the farmers are beginning to plow over the part of the cemetery in which they are buried, and suggests that they be removed at once.—General Lee communicated this information to the Hollywood Memorial Association, and the ladies of the association have determined to take steps to remove the dead from Gettysburg and reinter them in the cemetery at Hollywood. It will be done as early as practicable.—Rich. Enquirer.

A Virginia newspaper welcomes General Early back to his home as a patriot and valiant soldier. This does not please the senior morning black-and-tan newspaper in this city, and it gives its Virginia colemporary to understand that Early was whipped by Sheridan.

There is no doubt that among the Confederate Generals, there were forty better ones than Early, but with some eight or nine thousand half-a-mad, half starved, half-clad rebels, he managed to give Sheridan full employment for nearly a year, although the latter had a magnificent army of forty thousand men. From this it may be inferred that, as a cat's tail strategist, Sheridan was not an entire success.—Chicago Times.

Grand Gulf, Miss., last week, was the scene of one of those tragedies of passion that appear more like romance then reality. A young man named Cushing loved a Miss Andrews, pressed his suit, and was refused. On Sunday last he rode to her residence and, without alighting, begged to see her. When she appeared, he shot her dead. He then rode frantically away, but was pursued by his victim's brother, breathing vengeance against him. Andrews overtook Cushing as he was crossing a creek and fired at him. Cushing jumped from his horse and took shelter in the bush. Andrews, not to be at a disadvantage, did the same. A parley ensued, and the two young men agreed to fight, according to the code; to leave the cover, fire, advance and fire, and again advance, firing until one of them should fall. At the first fire Cushing received a mortal wound in the left shoulder, but the men continued to near each other and fire, until their revolvers were empty. When assistance arrived Cushing lay dead with four bullets in his body. Andrews had received three shots in his breast. He was able to tell how the fight had taken place, when he also expired.

Josiah Turner, editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, was fired upon through the window of his office late on the evening of Tuesday last. But a few days before he was met by a mob at the depot, headed by Holden, the coward and miscreant, and assisted by the whelps of his bidding, for the purpose of murdering him (Turner), but were frustrated in their hellish designs by the unexpected bravery of the gentleman assailed. Jo Holden proposes to offer a reward for the would-be-assassin; but how much did the Governor, Cebe Harris & Co., pay the assassin to do the job?—Rutherford Vindicator.

A very ridiculous report has obtained circulation from some cause, which we are at a loss to conceive of, that Gen. Thomas L. Clingman would shortly assume editorial control of the Raleigh Standard. From our knowledge of the sentiments of this esteemed and talented son of North Carolina, we do not hesitate to assert that these rumors are utterly false. Those who are most intimate with General Clingman are undecided whether to treat this fabrication as a huge joke, or denounce it as a malignant slander. We incline to the latter opinion; for it is an insult to even connect the public or private character of a decent Southerner with the infamous reputation of that standard of immorality.—Western Vindicator.

ALASKA DOG.—Yesterday our quiet citizens were thrown into a state of high commotion by the appearance on the streets of an Alaska canine of the feminine gender. She was carried from the island of Sitmonda" to N. Y., and thence to this city, arriving yesterday afternoon on board of the Ribbons Clyde. She is a specimen of rare beauty in the canine line, is a mixture of wolf and blood hound, is about three feet high, and weighs probably one hundred and twenty pounds. This extraordinary animal belongs to Mr. C. H. Gunner, to whom she was presented by Mr. Randolph Assistant Engineer of the Clyde.—Wil. Star.

MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY.—The following extraordinary marriage notice was furnished us yesterday evening, and positively occurred in this county yesterday morning:

Married, on the morning of the 13th inst., at the Poor house in Halifax county, N. C., by C. N. Webb, Esq., Mr. David Johnson, of Halifax, N. C., to Miss Nellie Atkerson, formerly of Lunenburg county Va.

The happy bride was a youthful maiden of only ninety nine winters on the 26th of December last, and the groom was a blooming boy in his eighty-ninth year. We wish them a happy honey-moon, and trust they may live to a ripe old age.—Roanoke News

The Hillsboro Recorder tells of three thefts. On 8 inst., some one stole 500 lbs bacon from the Claiborne plantation.—Mr. Brightwell, near the Red House, was robbed of all of his edibles, save bacon, which he had in his dwelling. Mr. Long, of Caswell, has had stolen three fine hogs.

Witticisms by Tom Evans of the Recorder, a chip of the old Milton Chronicle block. Hear him:

HOW TO GET NOTORIETY.—Get a speckled puppy to lick your hand; and give out that you have been bit by a mad dog.

HOW TO RUN A NEWSPAAER.—Eat your own pie, and feed your family and your cow.

TIMBER TO MAKE A COLORED CONGRESSMAN.—Black Jack.

EXECUTIONS.—It is a sad sight to see the number of Sheriff's sales of property under execution advertised at the Court House and various localities in this city. No greater indication of the sad times that have fallen upon us could be furnished.—We hope and long for a better day, but there are no evidences of improvement.—Wil. Journal.

A meeting of the Preachers and Deacons of the Beulah Association will take place at the Mars Hill Church on Friday before the 5th Sunday in May. The regular communion services have been postponed until that time.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The ground where the first decisive battle of Newbern was fought is being burned over, and will soon be under cultivation.—The line of earthworks from the House to the railroad below Capt. Simpson's house, and about four miles below that city, are almost unbroken, and though the grass is growing on them, they will yet remain visible many years.—Newbern Times.

Berryer did not leave any articles of much value, but several things at the sale brought high prices simply because they belonged to him. One of his canes brought eighty francs, and a writing desk brought eleven hundred francs. Some things went very low, however, among them a portrait of Rossini, which the musician sent him with an autograph inscription, which fetched only 100 francs. The total product of the sale was only 35,000 francs.

On Saturday a Miss Cairnes suddenly appeared on the hotel porch at Jarrattsville, Md., where there were twenty or thirty persons assembled and drawing a pistol fired three shots at and mortally wounded a Mr. Nicholas McComas, who died soon after. She gave herself up to the authorities. The alleged cause of the killing is seduction, she charging McComas with the paternity of her child.

BARON HENRI JOMINI.—The death of Baron Jomini, the eminent military writer and General officer, is announced as having occurred a few days since at Passey, France. Gen. Jomini was born at Payerne, Switzerland, on the 6th of March, 1779.—N. Y. World.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

In 1850 Philadelphia contained thirty two Baptist churches with 7,445 members, now the city has forty churches with 14,000 members.

NEXT August, the entire imperial family of France will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the great Napoleon, in Corsica.

The Baptist anniversaries will be held this year in Boston, each Society being limited to a day. The Foreign Mission is to have Tuesday, May 25th, the Home Mission Wednesday, and Thursday will be given to the Publication and Bible Societies.

The Bedford Alum Springs (a very valuable property near Lynchburg, Va.) will pass into the hands of a joint stock company of Northern capitalists, who intend to improve the property and enlarge the accommodations greatly.

SLEEPING FOR SIX MONTHS.—A patient, at the Lunatic Hospital near Paris, has been sleeping for six months. He has been scrapped, dipped, rubbed, scratched and whipped, but all to no purpose. He keeps his mouth firmly closed, and nutriment is administered him occasionally by a small tube through his nose. He has fattened a little.

THE PARAGUAYAN WAR—EXPEDITION TO CAPTURE LOPEZ.—London, April 13.—The latest advices from Rio Janeiro states that the allies were preparing to send an expedition of twelve thousand men from Asuncion into the interior of Paraguay in search of Lopez.

The amount raised last year for benevolent purposes by the Methodist Churches, was $761,021, averaging 77½ cents per member. The support of pastors is estimated as costing $4,991,000, and church erections, repairs, &c., at about $6,734,000 making an aggregate of $12,636,000. In Alabama there are no parsonages and 106 churches, valued at an average of only $120. The cheapest parsonage in the connection is valued at $50, and the most expensive (in Newark, N. J.) at $25 000.

CHARLES LONDON CORDIAL GIN, or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a promptness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DISEASES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

Wednesday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The following nominations have been made: Chas. C. Crow, of Alabama, to be Governor of New Mexico; Wentworth to be Marshal of North Florida; Samuel P. Carrow to be Marshal of North Carolina; Stephen Moore to be Receiver of Moneys at Mobile; Wm. H. Durgiary to be Receiver of Moneys at Montgomery.

Registers of Land—Sherm, at Mobile; Anderson at Montgomery.

Post Masters—Lewis, at Pulaski, Tennessee; Johnson, at Griffin, Georgia; Sears, at Staunton, Virginia; Wilker, at Lynchburg, Virginia.

The Monitor "Saugus" sails for Cuban waters in twelve days.

The following important order has been issued from the Treasury Department:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, April 14, 1869.

Notice is hereby given that the interest on coupons payable on the first day July next will be paid on presentation at the proper offices upon a rebate of interest at the rate of six per cent per annum

(Signed) GEO. S. BOUTWELL.
Secretary of the Treasury.

Chandler and Morton desired to debate Alabama treaty with open doors.

The motion failed.

Mr. Sumner made a two hours speech. He said England should be called upon to admit that she was in the wrong in recognizing the Confederacy as belligerents. Rebel cruisers were built in British ports, equipped with British armaments, manned with British seamen, got to sea under British colors, sheltered and provided with stores in ports of British islands and colonies and though well known to have first escaped to sea by violation of England's neutrality laws, were permitted by British vessels of war to pursue their career of destruction without molestation.

Mr. Chandler made a fierce attack on England and her course, and expressed his belief that there was not room enough on this continent for any nation which had so grossly insulted the United States. He had long believed that struggle would come over Canada and he now believed it would come in his day.

Mr. Fessenden endorsed the views of Mr. Sumner, that the treaty on this subject should rise to full dignity and importance on the international questions involved, and that the nation, with a due regard to its own honor, could not consider it upon lower grounds.

The President has directed the Secretary of War to order General Reynolds to proceed with registration in Texas, preparatory to an early election. It is understood, but not known, that similar orders have been issued regarding Virginia and Mississippi. It is also stated that the President will be governed by the commanding Generals regarding the proper time for holding elections. Great importance seems to be attached to power in the Constitutions which shall be submitted to separate votes.

HAVANA, April 15, M.—Napoleon Arango, and other Insurgents, Cisneftans, are heading a party in the Central Department in opposition to Gen. Quesanda, who, however, has a larger number of adherents. A cousin of Gen. Cespedes was killed near Manzanillo.

LONDON, APRIL 12.—A meeting of the Conservative members of Parliament was held to-night. Over two hundred members attended. Mr. Disraeli was present, and made a speech in which he indicated the future policy of the party on the Irish Church question, and announced the amendments which would be proposed by the opposition to the bill now pending in the House of Commons. These amendments are in effect that grants made to the Irish Church since the Reformation are to remain intact; that glebe lands be retained by their present holders without purchase; and that the union of the Irish Church and the Church of England cease in 1872. Important modifications of the financial sections of the bill are also proposed, including the establishment of a capitalized sum for the support of the clergy, instead of the granting of annuities, and the application of a large portion of the Church revenues to public worship and to defray the expenses of the management of the Church. Finally, an effort is to be made to have all the clauses in the bill referring to the Manooth Grant and the Regium Donum stricken out.

Mr Disraeli's plan was favorably received and the proceedings of the meeting were marked by much enthusiasm.

The coal and iron fields in Indiana cover an area of about 8,000 miles, accessible without the expense of shafting.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

AN ANSWER TO THIS GREAT QUESTION:

"Where to Get First-Class Goods at Reasonable Prices?"

GO TO

M. GRAUSMAN,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

FAYETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH, N. C.

AS FAR AS GOODS ARE CONCERNED, my Clothe, Cassimeres, &c., are first-class in style and quality. At really does the eye good to examine them.

The art in making up such Goods stylish and becoming is simple and correct, and almost an impossibility to fail in making a Perfect Fit.

My stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, neatly cut and well selected, and I am willing to Retail at Wholesale prices.

Don't fail to call on your servant.

apr26-tf M. GRAUSMAN.

CAUTION! We desire to warn the public generally, and dealers in, and consumers of smoking Tobacco in particular, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their goods, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is far ahead of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

P. LORILLARD, New York.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he roots into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rates, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued

Amount insured,	5,582 policies.
Total Premiums,	$10,055,500.00
	$50,117.55

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 602

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 691
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year, 1,200 "

And in its 20th year, 2,642 "

this latter being 650 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any house, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The bubbles and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, pounce upon the clothes, and forced through the meshes with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles from the minutest lint to the bed-clothes. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pounding.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and extracting the dirt WITHOUT RUBBING OR FRICTION—a thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at HUNTER & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operation.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state
